Wow! Today was our inaugural match at Arkoe Gulch, and what a great job everyone did with building the new range! It looked good in the pictures but all the finishing touches and details you notice in person were really great. And the owners at Arkoe seem really happy to have us there.

The match went off without a hitch (well not any more than any other cowboy match), with 33 shooters coming out to our new home, and several spectators. Lassiter was once again the top shooter for the day, and Honey B Quick was the top female shooter. Everyone must have been on top of their game today, there were a lot of really good stage times, and 16, yes, 16, clean shooters. You can find the full list on the website, that's too many clean shooters to list them all here!

A huge, huge, thank you to everyone who has helped in any way with the move to the new range, donating money, time, and materials to build the new stages, and setting up for the match, tearing down and storing targets afterwards, scoring and updating the website, we certainly couldn't have had such a great match today without all your help, and the new range really does look fantastic, and is still a work in progress.

We will be shooting again in two weeks, on the 30th, which being a 5th Sunday means we will also have Josey Wales category available. So if you got a bunch of pistols that need some exercise, bring em on out to the next match and Shoot Josey Wales! Hope to see you in a couple weeks!
